ALLEN GUILFORD CINEMATOGRAPHY AWARD

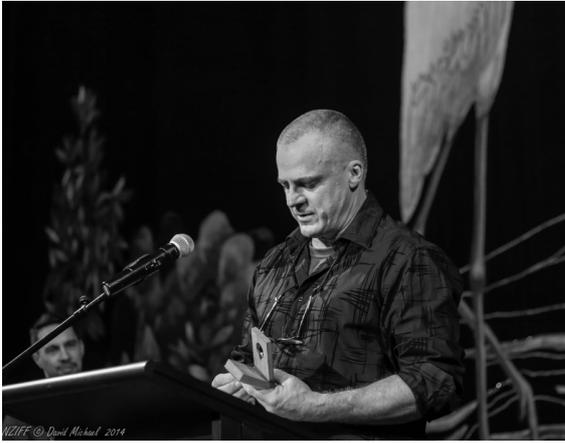

Each year a section of the NZ INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL is dedicated to “New Zealand’s Best 2014” Short Film Awards and the six finalists were judged for ‘The Madman Entertainment Jury Prize’ and “The Friends of the Civic short film award”. From these six finalists a jury of NZCS Cinematographers judged for the “Allen Guilford Cinematography” award. The judges were Richard Bluck, Leon Narbey, John Blick and David Paul. The late Allen Guilford is remembered as an outstanding cinematographer who mentored many in his industry.

The winner of the award received a cash prize, also a year’s Associate Membership to the NZ Cinematographers Society and a hand crafted pan glass engraved in memory of Kiwi cinematographer, the late Allen Guilford. NZCS gratefully acknowledge Jerry Mauger for the crafting of this award. We also thank Allen’s family for the support in honouring Allen’s legacy to the NZ film industry.

This year's recipient of the Allen Guilford Award is Grant McKinnon for the short film "Ross and Beth". One of the judges John Blick noted "The cinematography of ROSS & BETH magnificently supported a mature and sensitive story, performances and direction. The camera work and lighting was refreshingly un-showy, naturalistic and brought us close to the characters and their lives. Well judged and evocative."

Thanks to David Michael for the photograph.
